

I strongly oppose loosening any regulations designed to prevent news market dominance by one company. Regulations to protect the freedom of the press should be increased, not decreased!